

Story 1: Ahmaud Arbery Murder Investigation

"The first witness taking the stand this morning in the federal case against the three Georgia men convicted of murdering Ahmaud Arbery almost two-years ago.

Both the Department of Justice and defense attorneys presented their opening statements yesterday... explaining their versions of the moments leading up to Arbery's death that February.

Prosecutors believe over the coming days they'll prove the men talked about race in a negative light and used racial slurs when referring to Black people. However, the defense says THEIR evidence will show the men were trying to be quote "good neighbors" following a series of break-ins

We spoke to Arbery's mother who says she's preparing to listen to all the hard evidence...
